

Celebrate our Nation's Independence with an overnight stay at the Publick House Historic Inn
along with a Grand Fireworks Display at Old Sturbridge Village

All for just $159 plus tax and gratuity

The Package includes:

~Overnight accommodations for two adults and two children in the Country Motor Lodge located on the grounds of the Publick House

~Admission for two adults and two children to the Grand Fireworks at Old Sturbridge Village

$159 per night (plus tax) based on two adults and two children sharing the same room in the Country Motor Lodge.

Offer valid only on July 4th, 2009 (ask about costs for less/additional children or adults)

A spectacular July 4th fireworks display will light up the countryside over the Old Sturbridge Village. The Old Sturbridge Village fireworks display is one of the largest in New England and is the only one offered in the surrounding region the evening of July 4th. Beer, wine, sandwiches, snacks and more will be on sale, or visitors can bring their own picnic food.

Evening entertainment prior to the fireworks display will include a dramatic reading of the Declaration of Independence, performances by the Heritage String Band, Lucky Bob the Comedic Juggler, magician Bob Olson, river boat rides and games on the Common, including sack races, balloon toss, pie-eating contests and vintage base-ball.

OSV July 4th Evening Highlights and Fireworks (6:00-10:00 p.m.)

- Reading of the Declaration of Independence
- Enjoy music by Heritage String Band and Quintebrass
- Marvel at Lucky Bob Comedic Juggler
- Be amazed by Bob Olson as old-time magician Richard Potter
- Take part in community contests of yesterday
- Relax on a boat ride on Quinebaug River (separate fee)
- Bring a picnic or plan on supper at one of our
- Fireworks viewing areas open at 7:30.
- Grand fireworks exhibition over OSV's Freeman Farm at dusk

Contact the Publick House Historic Inn for more information on this package—

508-347-3313 or 800-PUBLICK