Publick House Historic Inn Accommodations

Through the years, this historical destination has grown into a landmark in Sturbridge, Massachusetts, offering two charming restaurants that boast a dining experience from an era that has long passed. We have 115 guest rooms with your choice of three lodging facilities all in a historical setting with private baths and air conditioning. Be sure to visit our Bake Shoppe, a real 18th century bakery, where irresistible things come out of our Yankee ovens. On a beautiful day, you can enjoy your morning coffee and fresh baked pastries on our picturesque patio.

Breakfast in the Publick House Historic Tap Room

Start your day off surrounded by the original post n' beam ceilings and rustic wide plank floors from 1771, in our Historic Tap Room for a hearty breakfast and the comfort of our Yankee hospitality. Our magnificent six-foot open hearth fireplace is the centerpiece of the Tap Room that will warm you as it did our early American ancestors.

Drover's Roast at Salem Cross Inn

Join the Salem Cross Inn, located in West Brookfield, MA, as they prepare a 1700's American trailside feast recalling the days of John Pyncheon, the colonies' first cattle drover. Hand-rubbed prime ribs of beef with an age old recipe of spices and slowly roasted for hours over a huge fireplace pit. Watch them make fritters and chowder of the sea in cast iron cauldrons over open fires. This endless feast also includes a variety of hot and cold vegetable dishes and seasonal items. Enjoy an assortment of baked goods, cobblers and pies, topped with real whipped cream. Enjoy hayrides, live entertainment, demonstrations by period crafts people and a Cow Puncher Drink.
